

Barcelona Airport BCN (Spain)

Case Study

With almost 40 million passengers per year, El Prat Airport in Barcelona is Spain's second largest airport (only Madrid-Barajas is larger), and the tenth largest in Europe. The terminals use several record FlipFlow TWIN models, creating one-way secure access points between the restricted areas and public areas, enabling passenger flows to be automatically and smoothly controlled.

Barcelona Airport BCN (Spain)

Case Study

Barcelona Airport BCN (Spain)

Case Study

